

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

36th Annual CODA International Conference: CODALeague 2024

San Diego, CA - February 21, 2024 - The Children of Deaf Adults \(CODA\) International organization proudly announces its upcoming 36th annual CODA Conference, themed "CODALeague," to be held at the Omni San Diego Hotel from June 20-23, 2024.

CODA, a vibrant community of individuals with Deaf parents from around the world, celebrates its uniqueness with this year's conference theme, emphasizing that Codas are a league of their own. This exclusive event is open to CODA members in good standing, offering them a dynamic platform to connect, learn, and grow.

Attendees can expect an enriching experience across the three-day event, featuring workshops, sessions tailored to different life stages, a newcomer session, and compelling keynote and endnote presentations by Monique (Mo) Clark and Paola Morales del Castillo.

In addition to the main conference program, attendees can participate in optional activities such as the pre-conference Gaslamp Walking Tour and the post-conference San Diego Padres game at Petco Park, enhancing their overall conference experience.

Previous attendees have praised the conference for its valuable session content that empowers individuals to further understand their similar coda-isms unique to their in-between culture. One attendee remarked, "The unique breakout sessions allow us to figure ourselves out even further and leave the conference refreshed and able to better integrate into the hearing world. This is empowering."

Codas Got Talent Benefit Concert: CODA International and The Bella Lunas proudly present Codas Got Talent, a benefit concert showcasing the incredible talents of Coda artists. Your generous contribution directly supports conference waivers, enabling more individuals to attend the 2024 CODALeague conference. Attend in person on Saturday March 9, 2024 at 03:00 PM in San Diego, California. Learn more.

It's not too late to join CODA International and register for the conference. Don't miss this opportunity to connect with fellow Codas and be part of a transformative experience.

For registration and more information, visit CODA's website.

Media Contact:

Leah Monson

Secretary

secretary@coda-international.org